

I have been working with daman|it since November 2007. daman|it are building all our external websites. They have been supporting us with our corporate websites and assisting us with a Redesign Project but also developed new disease area sites.

daman|it always deliver what they have promised and they are excellent at see how we can improve our websites. I'm very pleased to work with a vendor that always challenges our ideas to meet the best results.

daman|it are a professional vendor that always deliver top support and many times exceed expectations.

Thank you daman|it, I could strongly recommend you!
